Short-Term Rental Registration

---

Orinda Municipal Code section 17.3.12 establishes the regulations for Short-Term Rentals (30-days or less.) The main points are outlined below:

1. Registration is required

- The property owner and operator (if applicable) must complete and submit a registration form, including a Transient Occupancy Tax form.
- Registration is valid for one (1) year from date of issuance and must be renewed prior to expiration.
- Registration is non-transferable.

2. Permitted uses

- The rental unit can not be used for any use that would require a Temporary Event permit.
- The maximum occupancy of any space used for Short-Term rental is two (2) people per bedroom plus three (3) people.
- Only one short-term rental can take place on a single lot at any given time.

3. Code Compliance

- The property owner and operator (if applicable) are jointly responsible for ensuring the rental space complies with all local, state, and federal health and safety requirements
- The property owner and operator (if applicable) are jointly responsible for compliance with all City regulations, including those regarding noise, parking, and occupancy.
- A local contact person must be available 24 hours a day to accept phone calls and respond in person within 30 minutes if code compliance issues arise.

Transient Occupancy Tax

Code section 3.12.030 establishes the following:

- Operators that rent spaces to transients must obtain and post a Transient Occupancy Registration Certificate.
- The owner or operator of the rental space is responsible to collect, report, and remit 8.5% of the rent charged on a quarterly basis.

Fees:

- Initial Short-Term Rental Registration: $106.
- Annual Review: $52.
