

Evacuation Update

Orinda City Council

August, 15, 2023

Maui Wildfire will Provide Some Lessons Learned

Concerns About Evacuations have Been Heightened

Orinda has been Focusing on Evacuations

Safety Element

AB 747 Evacuation Analysis

Outreach & Education

Red Flag Day Parking Restrictions - El Toyonal

Red Flag Parking Restrictions Being Expanded to Miner Road area

Miner Road Contraflow

Activation Exercise Being Planned

Safety Element Includes Other Projects

City Council Added Staff to Implement

How Will the City Manage Evacuations?

Residents Are Not on Their Own

Active Management in Real-Time through the City's Emergency Operations Center

County Emergency Operations Center and Access to Resources

What Can Our Residents Do?

Sign Up for Emergency Alerts

Know Your Zone

Build a Go Bag

Make a List of Things to Take

Take a Video Inventory of Your Home & Belongings

Share Your Plan with Your Family

Get to Know Your Neighbors

Plan for Your Animals

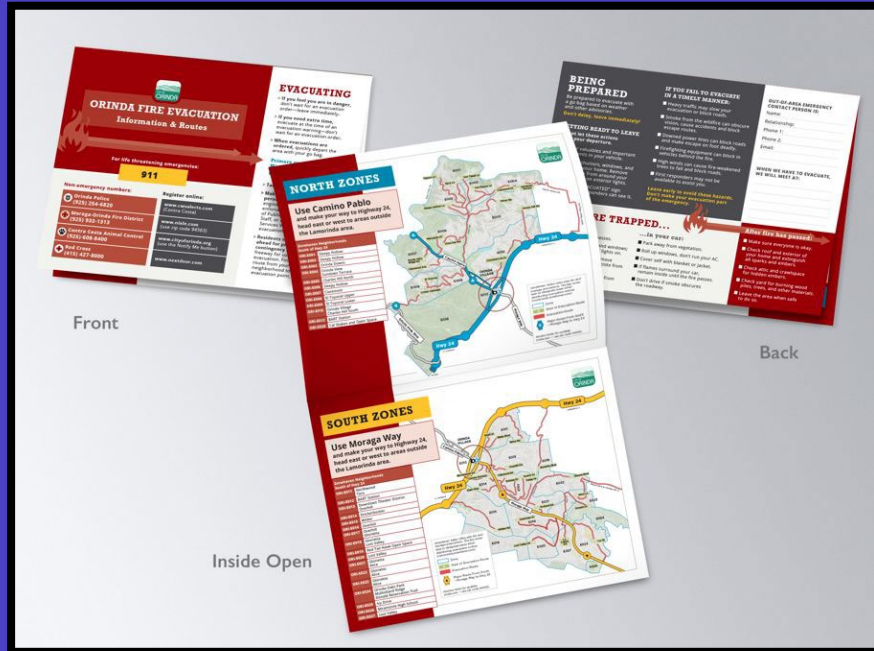

Evacuate Early- Don't Wait and Plan to Protect Your Property

Take Only One Vehicle

Plan Ahead for Primary and Contingency Routes

Orinda Fire Evacuation Guide & General Information

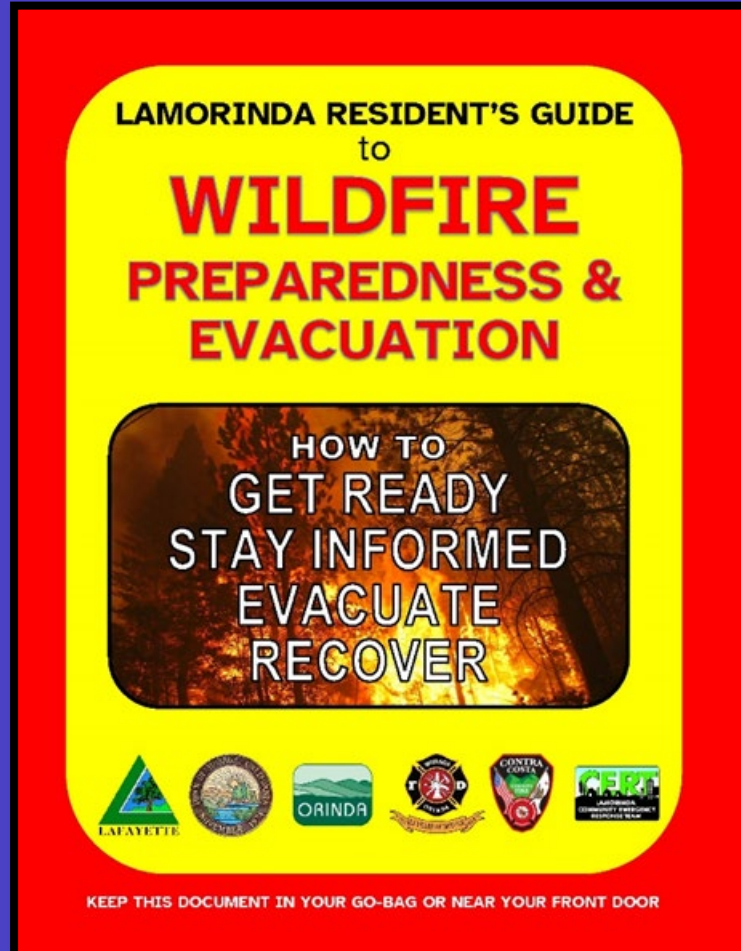

This Guide can be found at City Hall and on the City's website under the Preparedness Tab (<https://www.cityoforinda.org>).

Each Home Received a Copy as an Insert in the August 2022 Orinda News

Lamorinda Resident's Guide to Wildfire Preparedness and Evacuation Guide

Many Evacuations Due to Emergencies go Well

The Better Prepared We All Are Will Help to Ensure the Safety of Our Community, and That We Avoid Worst Case Scenarios

City Staff and Our Other Partners will be There to Direct and Assist, but it Will Require Everyone Play a Role in Ensuring the Best Possible Outcome

